

Elephant artworks displayed in Cyprus

Two children take photos of artworks featuring elephants on Ledra Street in Nicosia, capital of Cyprus, May 9, 2009. Artworks featuring elephant, which has been chosen as a symbol of peace and reconciliation, were on display here Saturday. Initiated by German artist Rose Marie Gnausch, the art movement was aimed at giving a visual expression to the abstract concept of peace. (Xinhua/Wang Qiang)

Photo Gallery>>>

Next >>

新华网版权所有

Elephant artworks displayed in Cyprus

An elephant-shaped sign stands at a checkpoint where Turkish Cypriots have to show their ID cards to enter the Greek Cypriot southern Nicosia, in Nicosia, capital of Cyprus, May 9, 2009.
(Xinhua/Wang Qiang)

Photo Gallery>>>

◀ Previous Next ▶

新华网版权所有

Elephant artworks displayed in Cyprus

Cypriot kids "feed" a paper elephant artwork on Ledra Street in Nicosia, capital of Cyprus, May 9, 2009. (Xinhua/Wang Qiang)

Photo Gallery>>>

◀ Previous

新华网版权所有